the volume offers an overview of the theories and practices of italian legal feminism presenting both the main themes addressed and the main protagonists of italian feminist legal theory the book is divided into two parts the first is dedicated to deepening crucial issues that directly concern women s knowledge and lives from a feminist perspective such as the interconnection between law rights and justice diversity difference and equality sex sexuality and reproduction citizenship and borders deviance criminal matters and security and victims victimology and vulnerability each set of thematic issues is analysed by a current italian feminist legal scholar who engages with multiple feminist voices in order to emphasise the need for an interdisciplinary approach to law from a feminist perspective the second part of the book is devoted to outlining the paths of study research and practice of specific and renowned italian legal scholars who have provided the foundation for legal feminism in italy letizia gianformaggio tamar pitch silvia niccolai and lia cigarini the book thereby offers for the first time a comprehensive account of the traditions and trajectories of italian legal feminism thus opening up a dialogue with other feminist approaches to law and justice the book will appeal to scholars in legal theory critical and sociolegal studies sociology gender studies and critical criminology the sexual political engages with contemporary political issues in sexuality through a survey of modern philosophy psychoanalytic thought 20th century political theory and more recent queer philosophies the book investigates how the sexual has perturbed philosophical political and psychoanalytic thought and how this has fed into discrimination against the lgbtqi community it analyses the social stigmas applied to public and private sexual acts and the psychopolitical processes leading to the prevalence of neo fascist populism in italy and the world tracing the history of sexuality through freud marx fanon and foucault among many others bernini considers why the sexual has always been an exceptionally difficult object to consider in political theory this book will be of key interest to scholars in queer theory antisocial theory psychoanalysis and politics drive theory political philosophy critical theory lgbtqia issues gender and sexuality studies and italian studies the open access version of this book available at taylorfrancis com has been made available under a creative commons attribution non commercial no derivatives cc by nc nd 4 0 license this is the first in depth study of the feminist movement that swept italy during the long 1970s 1968 1983 and one of the first to use a combination of oral history interviews and newly released archive sources to analyze the origins themes practices and impacts of second wave feminism while detailing the local and national contexts in which the movement operated it sees this movement as transnationally connected emerging in a society that was both characterized by traditional gender roles and a microcosm of radical political projects in the wake of 1968 the feminist movement was able to transform the lives of thousands of women shape gender identities and roles and provoke political and legislative change more strongly mass based and socially diverse than its counterparts in other western countries at the time its agenda encompassed questions of work unpaid care work sexuality health reproductive rights sexual violence social justice and self expression the case studies detailing feminist politics in three cities turin naples and rome are framed in a wider analysis of the movement s emergence its transnational links and local specificities and its practices and discourses the book concludes on a series of hypotheses regarding the movement s longer term impacts and trajectories taking it up to the berlusconi era and the present day the question of imaginary starts where its opposition to reality ends once this opposition is dismissed it becomes possible thinking of imaginary as a mean of construction and transformation of the social reality a series of essays regarding the taking form of socio anthropological environments the collective dynamics of social integration the mass media metamorphosis the politics legitimation processes the symbolic dimension of economics and that of the material culture the representation of otherness trace an analytical perspective in which imaginary represents an essential tool for a deep understanding of social phenomena contributors sergio brancato francesca colella stefano cristante fabio d andrea valentina grassi pier luca marzo milena meo luca mori maria giovanna musso domenico secundulfo antonio tramontana and pier paolo zampieri
